THE POWER OF THE EUCHARIST

It seems that when you are hungry, your senses conspire against you. That is why some restaurants put elaborate, full-color pictures of their meals on their menus or place sample plates in their windows. Their visual impact is to first entice you into the restaurant and then have you order even more than you planned.

If you are hungry, you can smell food cooking from great distances. It can leave you salivating and distracted from everything else. Even some sounds can set off hunger cravings. Listen to the sound of corn popping or bells that might remind you of the ice cream truck of your youth, and you find yourself with cravings you didn't expect.

Hunger can certainly be pervasive and life-threatening when there is no food available. But for us it usually is an inconvenience and not much more. We are blessed. For some it is a daily struggle to find basic sustenance. For others hunger sneaks up on them because they were too busy to eat a meal. Many people become grazers and snackers with food all around them.

Once again this week we are reminded of the power of the Eucharist, our spiritual food and nourishment. It is the gift that leads us to eternal life. It is our daily and our heavenly bread. And that is both hope and promise for us.

-- Father Dominic Grassi

NOW OR NEVER

"Keep careful watch over your conduct. Do not act like fools." —Ephesians 5:15

Pope John Paul II and prophets from other Christian denominations have proclaimed the prophetic word that we must take advantage of the opportunities we have now because these doors will soon be closed.

Jesus said: "The light is among you only a little longer. Walk while you still have it" (Jn 12:35). "We must do the deeds of Him Who sent Me while it is day. The night comes on when no one can work" (Jn 9:4).

Jeremiah prophesied: "Give ear, listen humbly, for the Lord speaks. Give glory to the Lord, your God, before it grows dark; before your feet stumble on darkening mountains; before the light you look for turns to darkness, changes into black clouds. If you do not listen to this in your pride, I will weep in secret many tears; My eyes will run with tears for the Lord's flock" (Jer 13:15-17).

Make the most of the present opportunity, for these are evil days. Do not continue in ignorance, but try to discern the will of the Lord" (Eph 5:16-17). "You have no idea what kind of life will be yours tomorrow" (Jas 4:14). Therefore, witness and work for the Lord now.
