Dear Friends in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus uses a parable to warn against desiring more goods than one needs, and against securing goods without regard for salvation. As we know, every person needs the products of this life, but goods and the desire for them must not take priority over one's relationship with God.

Since we live in a culture that encourages us to own more and more things, let us ask ourselves these questions? Do I purchase whatever I want, whether I need it or not? Do I have more possessions than I need? Do I share the excess of my possessions with those in need? Do I take care of the goods I own? Do I seek God above all things?

Let us keep in mind the promise of Jesus, who said "Seek you first the kingdom of God, then all the rest will be added unto you." Remember, our relationship with God is a greater blessing than all of earth's treasures, and only life with and in God will bring us true happiness! Amen

Blessings
Deacon Mark

GREED IS IDOLATRY

"Greed...is the same thing as worshipping a false god."

—Colossians 3:5, JB

As this is written, the American and global economies are in crisis. Far too many Christians are shaken, alarmed, and worried about their future. Christians are turning to financial experts, to news reports, to non-Christians for reassurance and hope. These reactions are revealing; a child of God should never worry (Mt 6:31), needing simply to turn to the Father for their needs. If Christians aren't able to trust their Father, do they really know Him at all? I was blessed with the best of earthly fathers. As a child, I never once worried if my dad could put meals on the table or lovingly lead our family. This childlike trust in an earthly father is but a shadow of the absolute trust we Christians must constantly have in our heavenly Father. If we cannot trust God the Father in a money crisis, what kind of relationship will we have with Him in a more serious crisis, such as our approaching death? Being a child of God and follower of Jesus means we put our lives and our needs in God's hands. We renounce all our possessions, including our bank account (Lk 14:33). We can't give our loyalty to both God and money (Mt 6:24). The desire for money is a trap (1 Tm 6:9) that can lead to idolatry (Col 3:5). Reflection from Presentation Ministries

CATHOLIC SCRIPTURE STUDY

It is time to sign up for Catholic Scripture Study. We will be studying 1st and 2nd Corinthians this year. This is a 28 week study. The commentary is by Steve Ray and the Video Lectures are by Fr. Patrick Winslow.

In Paul's Letters to Corinthians he addresses ongoing problems experienced in the Church at Corinth. These problems included dissension, immorality, lawsuits, liturgical abuses and their tendency to fall prey to "false teachers". Paul tackles each of these problems with his typical spiritual zeal, strengthening their faith and commitment to build up the Body of Christ. Two thousand years later, as we struggle with much the same problems, Paul's words of wisdom are both pertinent and valuable.

Registration forms are available at Holy Cross and Sts. Peter & Paul parish center. The cost is $50.00 which must be paid at the time of registration. Deadline to register is Sun. Aug. 8. Contact Laura Goedde at 768-6457 to sign up. Classes will be held on Sun. & Wed. mornings at Sts. Peter & Paul & Tues. evenings at Holy Cross.

NEWMAN CENTER DONATIONS NEEDED

After some recent flooding, we are looking at doing a bit of remodeling in the Newman Center basement. In particular, our two couches are starting to look pretty ragged, so I thought I would see if anyone is doing remodeling of their own or otherwise hoping to get rid of some couches/chairs (or anything else!) and would like to donate them to the Newman Center. You can contact me at 477-6446 if you have anything you might be interested in donating.
