When Mary Brought Her Treasure

When Mary brought her
Treasure
Unto the Holy Place,
No eye or man could measure
The joy upon her face.
He was but six weeks old,
Her plaything and her pleasure,
Her silver and her gold.

And she, all grandeur scorning,
Rejoiced in Jesus' fame;
The Child her arms adorning
Shone softly like a flame
That burns the whole night through,
And keeps from dusk till morning
Its vigil clear and true.

MESSAGE SUNDAY IS THIS WEEKEND.

It is time to renew or start a new subscription.

The Message has maintained its low subscription cost for several years – still only $24, or less than 50 cents an issue. A special issue was prepared for this weekend, mailed to every registered household in our parish and throughout the diocese. We hope you received it Friday or Saturday at the latest. The paper has details on how to subscribe or renew – including payment by credit card this year for the very first time. The year ahead includes a promise of new directions and new developments. Bishop Charles C. Thompson is just beginning his ministry in our diocese since his ordination last June. And the strategic planning effort in our diocese is nearing the time when decisions will be considered for the parishes and schools in our diocese. The Message is an award-winning newspaper. But more important than any award is its service to you, keeping you connected with your extended diocesan family.
