Sign ups for the Parish Directory are now over.

If you have a conflict or questions please call the Parish Office at 385-2617 and ask for Chris.

We are in the process of compiling photos of Parish events in the past 5 years. If you have any good pictures we could use for the directory please call the office. Also we will be requesting each ministry to take a group picture to submit.

(Perhaps the leaders of each ministry could get together with your group and have an outside person take the picture so everyone can be in the shot.)

We will also need pictures of any parishioners serving in the Military. We're not sure of the deadline yet - we'll let you know when Olan Mills informs us.

SUMMER CLEANING

St. Joe School Gym will be closed for cleaning during the week of July 26 thru July 31st.

JOSEPH'INES STUDY GROUP

Are you looking for an opportunity to grow in your faith? Would you like to connect with others on the same journey? The Joseph'ines Ladies Study Group will begin their new year on Monday, August 3rd. The group meets from 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. in the Celestin Center. The topic for August and September is Why Do Catholics Do That?: A Guide to Catholic Belief and Practice. We will explore in depth the Mass, the 7 Sacraments, the Bible, Sacramentals, Centering Prayer and much more. There is no cost to attend and all ladies are welcome. Come join us for faith formation, fellowship and fun! If you need transportation, contact the Parish Office at 385-2617.

FAMILY FAITH ON THE GO

Summer is a wonderful time to explore new adventures and create some new habits.

Integrating prayer into the everyday routine is as simple as praising God in the morning and thanking God at night.

Below are some quick and easy ways to introduce your family to the Catholic tradition of morning prayer time.

Morning Prayers

- Stick a Post-It note on the bathroom mirror (which your children use) that says, "Thank you, God, for this new day!" Leave it there throughout the summer as a fun reminder to praise God first thing in the morning.
- Sing prayer songs as you help little ones bathe and dress. It could be something as simple as "This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine!" Once one person starts to sing, the catchy tune will spread throughout the family.
- At breakfast, pray this simple morning offering together as a family: "Lord, we offer you this day and all that we think, and do, and say." Remind everyone that these simple words turn their entire day into a prayer.
- During breakfast, you might want to ask if there's something happening that day that anyone in the family wants to pray for. You might also want to pray as a family for family members or friends who are sick, traveling or going through a difficult time.
- Remind your children that their Guardian Angel will be with them throughout the day. You might want to teach them this traditional prayer to their Guardian Angel: "Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this day, be at my side, to light, to guard, to rule and guide."

ENOUGH" (Lk 22:38)

"My grace is enough for you." —2 Corinthians 12:9

Alleluia! Today is Resurrection day, the weekly celebration of that first Easter morning when Jesus rose from the tomb, triumphed over sin and death, and made all things new for us. Today is a day of unity, when believers from all over this earth gather to worship almighty God, listen to His living, all-powerful word, and receive the Bread of Life, Jesus Himself. Today we learn again that God loves us so much that He can never give us enough of His blessings. Alleluia! How wonderful is God's plan for this day! How can it be that people will walk away from God's house today saying disgustedly, "I've had enough of this church," rather than, "Your grace is enough for me"? The difference is revealed in today's psalm response. When our eyes are fixed on Jesus as Lord; in a spirit of humility, then we are opened to His mercy and grace. When we focus on anything else, then God is not enough to satisfy us; instead, He is "too much" for us and we turn elsewhere for satisfaction. Today, as you observe the Lord's day in all its splendor, "examine yourselves". "What are you looking for?" "Are the consolations of God not enough for you?"

ATTENTION PARENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

The diocesan office of youth and young adult ministry maintains an Excel file of college students and the college or university they are attending. This information is used to connect your son/daughter with the Catholic Campus Minister so our young adults are kept informed of the Newman Center activities on campus. Please call Chris at the Parish Office to add your student's name to the list. This is especially important for incoming college freshmen.

PRAY HIM FORWARD & PRAY HER FORWARD

The Vocations Office for the Diocese of Evansville is very excited to announce a new initiative to help all of us to better understand and encourage vocations. The theme of Praying Them Forward is a call to all of us to recognize that we have a role to play in helping young men and women to discern God's call in their lives. Check out the parish resources, blogs of priests and religious sisters, tips on how to help your children or friends who need some guidance, and much more. It's all at www.stationforvocations.org. Let's work together to build a culture where listening for God's call is a little easier.
