A Father’s Day Blessing

Loving God, we give you thanks for the many gifts you have given us; the gift of life, the gift of those who love us. We especially thank you today for the gift of our Fathers and Grandfathers.

We give thanks for our Fathers and Grandfathers who have died and for the unique way they have revealed for us Your love. We ask that you bless them and keep them in your care until that time comes for us to join them in your Kingdom.

We ask your blessing upon the Fathers and Grandfathers who are unable to be with us here today. May they know how much we love and care for them.

We ask Your blessing upon Fathers who have lost children through death — may they have Your continuing strength and courage.

We ask Your blessing upon the Fathers and Grandfathers with whom we will celebrate this day. Give them the strength to live the faithful and loving lives You call them to live. Protect and guide them. Keep them in your care. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord.

St. Joseph, patron and protector of all Fathers, pray for them and all of us. Amen.

A STORMY RELATIONSHIP

"The Lord addressed Job out of the storm." —Job 38:1

You're in a veritable hurricane of difficulty, and all you can see of Jesus is that He's asleep. You want to scream, "Jesus, don't You care?" However, Jesus "cares for you". "Indeed He neither slumbers nor sleeps, [your] guardian". Since Jesus never slumbers on the job of guarding you, His sleeping in the boat of the Church and of your life must carry another meaning. Possibly, Jesus' act of sleeping in the boat is yet another case of Him giving us an example.

The disciples, accustomed to the storms of the sea, finally experienced a storm they couldn't handle. Jesus was in the same storm and the same boat, but was asleep! He had perfect peace in the worst storm. What an Example! Facing death, Jesus yawns, arises, and stops the chaos.

Jesus has shared His eucharistic body and divine nature with us. Can't you see that He wants to give you His own peace? He expects us to follow His example and trust Him in the worst times. This is evident, because instead of comforting His panicked disciples, He challenges them, exclaiming: "Why are you so terrified? Why are you lacking in faith?"

Jesus states that we, His disciples, will undergo storms and trials. "It is a test for you, but it should not catch you off guard". When Jesus the Good Shepherd judges it to be the proper time, He will lead you from the stormy waters to the still waters. Until He does this, trust Him and do not fear. Jesus is Lord of all storms. Reflection from Presentation Ministries

DEANERY AND DIOCESAN NEWS & EVENTS

ATTENTION PARENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

The diocesan office of youth and young adult ministry maintains an Excel file of college students and the college or university they are attending. This information is used to connect your son/daughter with the Catholic Campus Minister so our young adults are kept informed of the Newman Center activities on campus. Please call Chris at the Parish Office to add your student's name to the list. This is especially important for incoming college freshmen.

PRAY HIM FORWARD & PRAY HER FORWARD

The Vocations Office for the Diocese of Evansville is very excited to announce a new initiative to help all of us to better understand and encourage vocations. The theme of Praying Them Forward is a call to all of us to recognize that we have a role to play in helping young men and women to discern God's call in their lives. Check out the parish resources, blogs of priests and religious sisters, tips on how to help your children or friends who need some guidance, and much more. It's all at www.stationforvocations.org. Let's work together to build a culture where listening for God's call is a little easier.
