The Most Holy Trinity

“Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One!” This verse from Old Testament’s book of Deuteronomy is the Shema Israel, the central article of faith prayed three times a daily by observant Jews. We Christians could say “Amen” to the Shema. Ours is the same God. But missing is the revelation of the person of Christ Jesus, also God. And the Holy Spirit, also God. Not three gods: one God. The doctrine of the Trinity is a bit boggling, but our faith life would be so much less if God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit had not been revealed. The mystery remains mystery, true; but we can rejoice in the Father’s creative love, the Lord Jesus’ saving love, and the Holy Spirit’s love that renews our life. This weekend we celebrate the goodness of life with the one God of all.

TRIPLE PLAY

"The Spirit Himself gives witness with our spirit that we are children of God." —Romans 8:16

Before you were born, you lived inside your mother's womb for months. You were aware of her every breath and movement. You could feel the beat of her heart and sense her moods. Although you had never seen your mother, you had an intimate relationship with her. As you matured in her womb, your mother would talk to you. In some way, you could hear the sound of her voice. Because of your position in the womb, you couldn't understand the language she spoke, and it was impossible for you to comprehend her world. She tried to describe her world and reveal herself to you, but you couldn't get the picture. Yet you weren't too young to feel her love for you.

The relationship between mother and pre-born child is analogous to our relationship with the Triune God. The mystery of the Holy Trinity is "inaccessible to reason alone" without divine revelation (Catechism, 237). Yet God reveals Himself to the childlike (Mt 11:25). Like the mother filled with love for her child, the Triune God is always revealing Himself to us. The Father sends His Son Jesus to us (Jn 3:16). The Son reveals the Father "in an unheard-of sense" (Catechism, 240; see also Mt 11:27). We would never know that we could address God as our Father if Jesus hadn't taught us how to pray (Mt 6:9). The Father and the Son send the Spirit. The Spirit reveals the Father and makes us cry out in our hearts "Abba" (Gal 4:6; Rm 8:15). We can't fully comprehend the Triune God, but we can relate to Him. Strive to be more deeply immersed in Trinity-love.
