Next Sunday is Mothers Day!

Let's pray for all our Mothers both living and deceased.

Dear People,

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank all those who made Holy Week and Easter such a beautiful and prayerful experience at Blessed Sacrament and St. Joseph Parishes. Whether your participation was from the choir section, or pew, or on the altar or behind the scenes, it all came together in a rich and powerful prayer.

I would also like to welcome once again the newest members of our family of faith who were confirmed and received their first Eucharist at the Easter Vigil Mass. I thank the whole R.C.I.A. Team who prepared them for these Rites of Initiation and their sponsors who journeyed with them through the process. I also want to recognize Rick and Roxann Coleman for coordinating the RCIA process again this year.

We are already receiving inquiries from people about learning more about our Catholic faith. If you, or someone you know, might be interested in our R.C.I.A. process, please have them contact either of the parish offices. We will begin the Period of Inquiry, the first stage of the process, in September.

Father Ron

Congratulations First Communicants!

PUT YOUR MONEY WHERE YOUR MOUTH IS

"One of the twelve, Thomas (the name means 'Twin'), was absent when Jesus came. The other disciples kept telling him: 'We have seen the Lord!' His answer was, 'I will never believe it.' " —John 20:24-25

Jesus comes to the doubting Thomases and says: "If you think seeing is believing, I'll give you something to see." He shows them His wounds like He did Thomas, or knocks them to the ground like He did Saul (Acts 9:4). He calls us, the believers, to share all things in common and sell our property and goods (Acts 2:44-45). Jesus makes His presence and resurrection so concrete even doubting Thomas confesses: "My Lord and My God!" Will you take resurrection risks? Will you have the courage to show your wounds? Will you put your money where your mouth is? Will you unlock your upper room of fear? Jesus' resurrection Kingdom "does not consist in talk but in power" . "With power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus". Reflection from Presentation Ministries
