ST. JOSEPH & BLESSED SACRAMENT— NEWS AND EVENTS

Dear Parish Family,

We know a lot of you have prayed for us before, during and after my recent surgery. Thank you for the many prayers, cards and notes. We greatly appreciate it. You have touched our hearts and all your kindnesses have given us a feeling we can't really describe.

I'm on the road to recovery and pleased to report there is no post-surgery chemo or radiation required. I'm looking forward to returning to St. Joseph and Blessed Sacrament as your deacon and spending time with all of you at Mass.

Your thoughts and prayers have made all the difference. We praise and thank God for allowing us to be a part of this wonderful family of faith. May He in turn bless each of you in abundance.

YOU and YOUR PASTOR

PRAYER — If your pastor is a Catholic priest, he has committed himself to pray for the Church, including you, at daily Mass and at least five other times each day in the Liturgy of the Hours. In turn, you should pray for him by name daily. WORK — Your pastor's primary work is to teach ; Vatican II, On Priests, 4, 6). You are obligated to share in this teaching ministry by learning the faith, witnessing for Jesus and teaching the faith at home or elsewhere. SPEECH — Your pastor has the responsibility to correct you by speaking the truth in love. You have the responsibility to encourage him and to avoid gossip, which is spiritually like a cancer in the Christian community. OBEDIENCE — If your pastor is in unity with the Church, "do everything and observe everything" he tells you. Likewise, your pastor should submit to the authority of those leading him. He must be under authority to be in authority in God's order. SUFFERING —Your pastor is to find joy in the sufferings he endures for you or even from you. He should even do penance not only for his sins but also for your sins (Catechism, 1466). You also should suffer and sacrifice to support your pastor.
